

The Cob Quiz Answers

Round 7

1. In what discipline would you find a "tiger trap"? (One point)
Eventing
2. What is Valegro's stable name? (One point)
Blueberry
3. Complete the following statements using the multiple-choice answers, cross out the incorrect answer:
When working around horses we should wear riding boots or yard boots to protect our feet in case a horse steps on our feet. Loose fitting clothing could get caught on doors and equipment as well as scare your horse if it flaps, so jodhpurs and fitted tops are ideal. Jewelry can also be a hazard so should not be worn as it can get caught on equipment or in a horse's tail and cause injury. (Five points)
4. Which top eventing duo won Badminton three times in a row? (One point).
Andrew Nicolson and Avebury
5. How would you describe the facial marking on the horse pictured below? (One point).

Facial Marking: STAR AND STRIPE

6. A horse/pony has two blind spots, where are they? (One point)
Directly in front and behind
7. What is it called when you just take out the muck from a stable? (One point)
Skipping out
8. The following statements describe taking off a saddle, but they are in the wrong order. Can you put them in the correct order by labelling each statement? Label the statements from 1-5, 1 being the first step you would take and 5 the final step. (Five points)

Statement	Order
Undo the girth from the left side and gently release it down. Do not just let go because it may swing, hitting the horse's legs.	2
Lift the saddle up slightly before pulling it towards you so it doesn't drag across the horse's back.	4
Ensure the horse is securely tied up in a safe area using a quick release knot.	1
Walk under the horse's neck and round to his right side, lift the girth (still attached) up and lay it over the saddle.	3
Place the saddle in a safe location and brush the horses back off with a body brush. You may need to use a sponge and water to wash any sweat patches off.	5

9. Which of the following are rules we should follow when using the arena?
(Two points)

When others are already using the arena, make sure it is safe to do so and that they are aware before you open the gate/door
Keep a safe distance from other riders and horses

10. Today in your lesson you rode Patch, who is a gypsy cob. How would you describe him to your non-horsey friends? (One point)

A horse with a stout build, bigger joints and overall stockier frame
